

Microsite Nomination Form

Is your organisation making the best possible use of the Internet? Do you need to increase visibility, reach a large or dispersed audience of members? Are you aware of the opportunities a website can offer, but you're terrified of the technicalities?

Well the Scottish Borders Community Grid is pleased to offer your organisation the chance to have its own website, which you'll be able to control through an easy to use "content management system". You won't have to learn any complex coding and to support you through the process of creating your new website we have a dedicated member of staff, who will equip you with the skills you need to succeed.

We will provide the training and guidance your organisation needs, to smoothly progress through each stage of creating a website, we will take you through the initial planning stage, help you create exciting and compelling content and finally assist you to set up and promote your website. The best part of the whole package is that all these services will be provided free of charge.

So if you think your voluntary organisation would benefit, why not apply now! All you have to do is fill out this short form.
